

I am writing to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a good example of the dangers of so many stations being controlled by just a few media Giants. Using the public airwaves to promote partisan politics from the editorial room is a violation of their license to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you. Jerry Sires
